From Sports Collectors Digest Magazine : Cardboard Legends before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cardboard Legends:

The Legends Live On! The names Mantle, DiMaggio, Williams, Aaron, Ullrich, Jordan, and Chamberlain, among other sports legends, are synonymous with greatness. Their play on the field or in the arena left an indelible mark on generations of fans that blossomed into a lifelong devotion that included collecting various artifacts. In Cardboard Legends, bring back the memory of 30 great Hall of Famers with a collection of interviews, anecdotes and history, along with how these players' success on the field has led to amazing prices for their memorabilia in the sports hobby.
