One of Raycrafts' Americana Price Guide comes with a cd of details and packs every page with small but clear, bright color photos of collectibles still available at markets, antique shows, garage sales and more. History blends with a price guide - and the DVD of interviews with fellow collectors who share insights and tips is not to be missed, enhancing the entire product.

This price guide is the premiere source for information on what to look for, how to make sure its real, and up-to-date values for a wide range of collectibles that are still available at markets, antique shows, garage sales, estate auctions, and Internet auctions. Covering a little bit of everything and housing more than 1,000 color photos, the book contains information on Depression glass, John Deere collectibles, Boy Scouts memorabilia, advertising, Halloween collectibles, toys, sugar buckets, golf clubs, fishing lures, baseball collectibles, jewelry, postcards, game boards, and hundreds more categories of Americana. This guide is part history lesson and part price guide, and includes a DVD featuring professional dealers who share their insights and secrets on collecting a wide variety of Americana. The Raycrafts have sold more than a quarter of a million books on subjects ranging from country antiques to sports memorabilia. Eighteen years ago, they started an antique market in Bloomington, Illinois, that is held each May through October and has been dubbed one of the nations best. Dealers and customers from all over the Midwest gather in anticipation of finding rare antiques and collectibles. The Raycrafts bring years of antiques and collectibles experience to the pages of this handy, must-have collectors resource.
