By Linda Dickerson Anyone that adores any of Robert Tonner's dolls will truly appreciate the behind the scene information that this book supplies. It also gives ideas for doll clothes for the different dolls. I think most of all I found the personal information about Robert Tonner's life and history was very insightful. The book is a great resource for Tonner collectors. It had the history of Robert Tonner doll company. I wished the book was longer. Great book!

A personally guided tour through the culture that shaped the acclaimed doll designer's career and creations. The contents are in 3 parts with each part discussing a 20 year span (1950s and 60s; 1970s and 80s; 1990s and the early 2000s.)
