Ronald S. Barlow, Ray Reynolds : The Insiders Guide to Old Books Magazines Newspapers and Trade Catalogs: 21000 Items Priced by Dealers and Collectors before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Insiders Guide to Old Books Magazines Newspapers and Trade Catalogs: 21000 Items Priced by Dealers and Collectors:

0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. DisappointingBy SueI was hoping for lots of pictures, either color or black/white, but there were none. It was very disappointing and made the book very boring to read. The only redeeming fact was that I bought it used for a great price.0 of 2 people found the following review helpful. OKBy Joseph R. MarchbanksMust be OK or I prolly wouldn't have bought it, but can't say for sure, cause it's lost like most of the stuff I buy.

Various laid in notes. Clean and sound copy with owner's name inside front cover.

21,000 old books, magazines, newspapers and catalogs with dealer prices. The book is full of practical information for collectors and dealers. "A few of the dozens of areas covered: Atlases, banned books, old bibles, children's books, cookbooks, county histories; how to spot first editions, and even a chapter on opening a used book shop. It is possible to read this book for pure pleasure." Los Angeles Times "I have found my copy of The Insider's Guide to Old Books to be one of the most useful tools of the trade, out of an entire shelf full of price guides." Bookfinders at Fox Den

From the Back Cover The Insider's Guide contains titles that are currently in demand. It is not padded with common or irrelevant listings. The emphasis is on Americana of the 1880 to 1945 period. You will find descriptions and values on everything from books on cowboys and Indians to the Civil War and the Westward movement. Plus technical tomes, arts crafts, automotive literature, bicycle catalogs, hunting, fishing, baseball, golf, food, fashions, and popular fiction. A 64-page section is devoted to prices for 3,300 collectable magazines, many worth $100 or more. Early newspapers from Lincoln's funeral coverage to WWII headlines are also appraised. Trade catalogs, from Sears Roebuck to Stanley Tools and Winchester Firearms are also quite collectible. There are hundreds of attic treasures to be discovered in this big 454-page price guide.
