While the general slots available are correct, there are three variants which are not included: The 1894-S; while it is one of the rarest coins in existence, a slot should be available. More serious, though, is the lack of slots for the 1982/3 strikes and 1894-O and micro-O variations. Hard to find, but still available. The labels on the individual slips for the coins on one page appear fractured as if the ink or die used had malfunctioned during printing. C'mon, there are only three pages in this album and one is misprinted? Quality control, or lack of the
